The Essence Of A Being

A Thread.

Small fibers wound together to make a single unit.

You can color this thread black, green, or white. It is still the same thread. Changed and yet really unchanged.

Thus it is with the individual. You can change his outward appearance, but it is still really the same person. The individual's fiber, while not cotton or wool, is what makes that individual unique.

You may call this fiber character, soul, or life force. We call it the "Essence of a Being." Threads together making a cloth, students together making a school. Each makes up the whole and without each, it isn't whole. That is this book's theme.

Read on.

The Individual On His Own

The Individual Within A Group

Mr. Robert Morris

Push Your Own Button?

"Mr. Morris, I'm here from the Annual to inform you that you have been elected . . ."

"Why aren't you dressed out?" "Take a lap."

"No, you don't understand. I'm from the Golden Eagle Annual to tell you we are dedicating this year's annual to you! Would you fill me in on your life?"

"I'd be glad to! I have my B.S. from Pepperdine, my M.S. from U.S.C. and I have two years on my P.H.D."

"I came to El Segundo in 1954 to teach P.E. I liked the size of the school and the freedom of thinking."

"I like golf, eating, music and people."

"Do you have any favorite expressions?"

"Yes. 'Push your own button'."

"Uh . . . thank you."

FACULTY

Board Decides Actions Of School

The Board of Education makes decisions, within the framework of the State Constitution and State codes, which affect the High School.

This group consists of five members, all residents of this school district and elected by the voters of El Segundo to a four year term. It is headed by President Sam Douglas.

Dr. Harter
Superintendent of Schools

Board members listen attentively to suggestions from concerned citizens.

Board looks over agenda.

Mr. Dohmann —
Principal.

Big Wheels Make Us Nuts And Bolts Work

The administration of this high school is primarily comprised of Mr. Dohmann, Mr. Kingston and Mr. Craven.

Mr. Dohmann, Principal of ESHS, is well on his way toward rectifying any student problems in this, his second year.

Mr. Craven, as Assistant Principal of Pupil Service, is the chief disciplinarian and sideburn-watcher of ESHS. He sets the boys' dress standards.

Mr. Kingston is our Assistant Principal of Pupil Activities. As such, he is in charge of keeping our calender of events in order.

Mr. Craven —
Asst. Principal.

Mr. Kingston —
Asst. Principal.

COUNSELORS — Truer Than A Compass

What is a ship without a navigator?

Or a safari without a guide?

Well, it couldn't be a worse mess than a student without a counselor. Fortunately, no such tragedy occurs at ESHS where our stalwart counselors give their all.

I guess it's just about time to introduce these miracle workers. I will now do so . . .

I now salute you!

Mrs. Stuckeman — Girls' Counselor, Girls' League Sponsor.

Mr. Ward — Counselor

Mr. Bristlin — Head Counselor

Mr. Wilson — Curriculum Director.

Mrs. O'Hair — Counselor

Turn On, Tune In, Drop In

Secretary to Principal — Mrs. Adams.

Library — Mrs. Floyd.

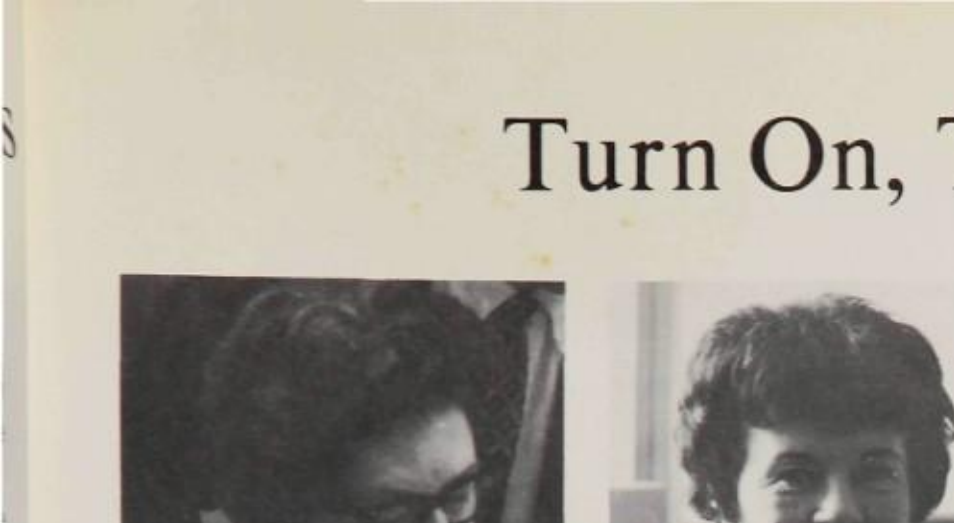
Attendance Off. Sec. — Mrs. Shoaff.

Attendance Clerk & ASB Bookkeeper — Mrs. Cuzick.

Moving right along, we come to (it's about time!) those hard working, lovable people — the secretaries. They are the reason the High School machinery functions. Typing reports, requisitions, filling out absentee reports are a few of the many activities they perform. But one look at them tells you all this work doesn't get them down.

Guidance Off. Sec. — Mrs. Liedke.

Sec. to Asst. Principal — Mrs. Malm.



Attendance Supervisor — Mr. Porter.

Sec. to Asst. Principal — Mrs. Evans.

Records and Guidance Off. Sec. — Mrs. Fraze.

Nurse — Miss Thorsen.

Librarian — Mrs. Rosenberg.

New Classes Introduced

The one thing we do each year here at E.S.H.S.? Change! Adding the new to the not so new. For example, American Studies and Behavioral Sciences started this vear.

American Studies is a two-in-one period, U.S. History and Literature. Two single periods are now one double period. The accent is on discussion in class.

Moving right along now, we come to Behavioral Sciences. This study of human motivation has taken us on many field trips to such now places as U.C.L.A., Natural History Museum, and Synanon.

The Pit Crew Keeps Us Going

Our refuelers — the cafeterians, keep the students moving. Just a pitstop at the snack bar and we are ready to tackle sixth period.

Taking us a little further than sixth period, we have the bus drivers.

To keep the "race track" clean, the janitors are right at hand.

They're off! Get moving!

Janitors — John Minnicucci, Ken Petrakian, Frank Mote, Dick Hummell, Edd Olson, Frank Campise, Ray Campbell, Richard Schroer.

Juniors — Class Of 1970

Greg Hancock and Steve Ray against a PV player.

One would think that arranging a prom would be work enough for any one class. Not the Junior Class. They not only made the prom and dinner at the Disneyland Hotel a smashing success, they made a fantastic amount of money. If you remember way back, just before Christmas, your friendly neighborhood Junior was selling candles.

Why the obsession with money? We were subjected to Mr. Peterson's daily plea of "Does anybody possibly have any money for me?"

Since we were freshman we have looked forward to the time we would become seniors and now the time has arrived. Yea us!

Sophomores — Class Of 1971

Don't spill any WHITE paint Linda!

The machine age has taken over at El-Segundo High. One no longer has to worry about someone to dance with. The sophomore class will furnish you with one by its magnificent electronic matchmaker.

The Sophomore class sponsored a Computer Dance, two successful paper drives, a booth at both a basketball and a football game, and a money making candy cane sale.

Congratulations! You have reached another step in your high school years. YOU ARE UPPERCLASSMEN!

Freshman — Class Of 1972

But how are they going to know it was us who hung that fish above the door?

FROSH

F-F-FRO . . . O-O-OSH was the cheer that started freshman class spirit. Governor Ken Dalgleish led this young class to an exciting first year at El Segundo High.

The frosh held a concession booth during football season and also one during basketball season. They sponsored a dance that was very financially rewarding.

After a whole year of being the "under-under classmen" and being picked-on, beat-up, and chewed-at, they became sophomores.

Lynn Wendell shows freshman enthusiasm.

Boys' State — Steve White
and
Girls' State — Susan Engquist

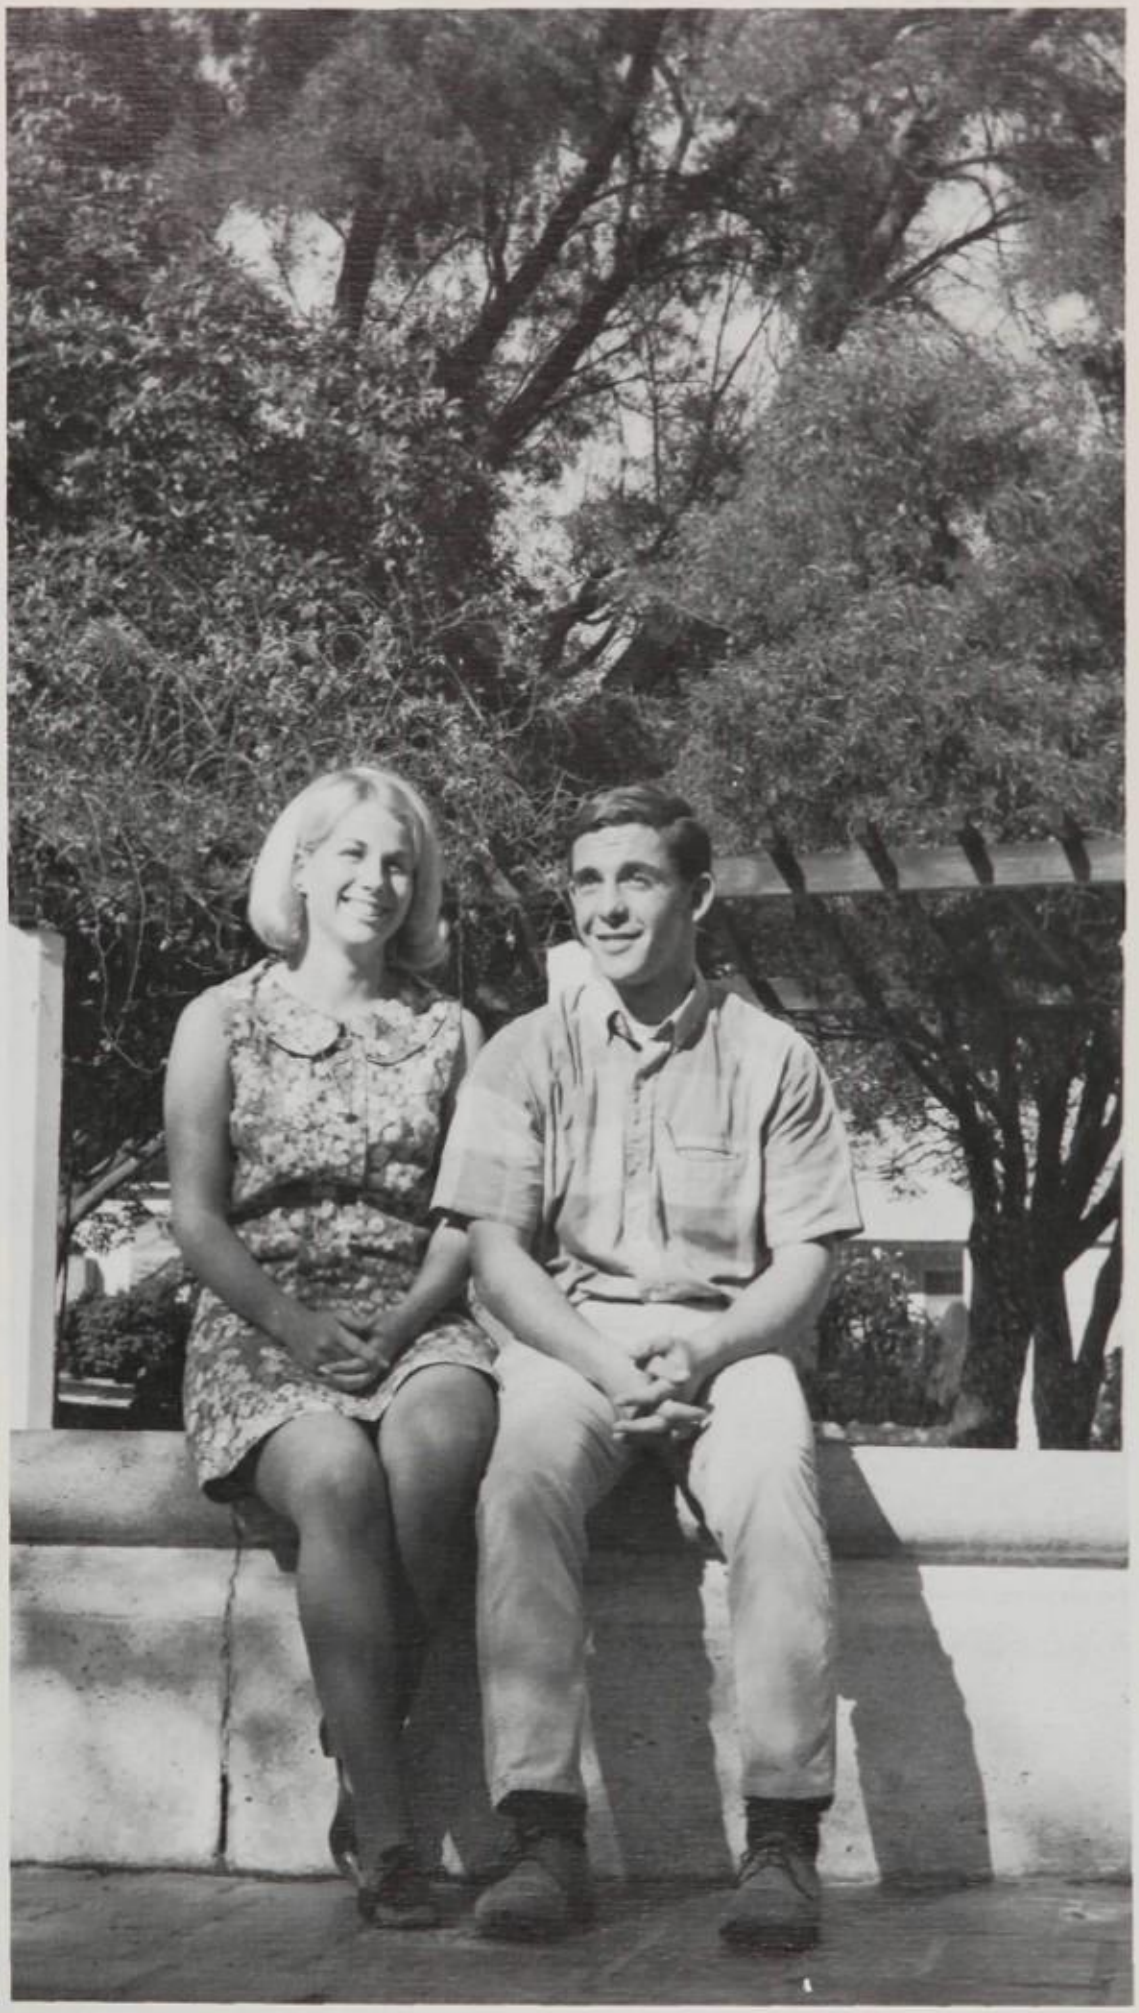
Susan Engquist was chosen by the American Auxiliary for showing leadership, an interest in government and being in the upper third of her class scholastically.

The activities of Girls' State this year included attending lectures on state and city government. They also learned by creating their own government.

Chosen on an overall basis of grades, citizenship, class participation, Steve White looked forward to the week at the State Capital.

What is the purpose of Boys' State? To quote the Creed: "... to learn and understand government and arouse and maintain a like interest in fellow citizens."



Governor, Steve White, Secretary, Candy Kuzmik, Lt. Governor, Jim Helvey.

Senior State Officers

The end of a decade! Finishing up the Sizzling Sixties is the class of '69.

To keep spirit high, the class has sponsored a tug of war and sack race at homecoming. To keep the cash box full, a bake sale, a car wash and Spaghetti Dinner were sponsored.

Lt. Governor, Ivy Zobel, Governor, Scott Dalgleish, Secretary, Ella Jolly.

Junior State Officers

Almost Seniors!

A slave day, candle sale, after-game dance, and the traditional booth at home football games — proceeds went to finance the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom.

Other highlights of their Junior year included class rings which were delivered early in the year.

Sophomore State Officers

A successful paper drive in November, a swinging money-making concession booth at football games and a fantastic Computer Dance spirited the sophomore class towards a fabulous year.

Desiring to make the sophomore class more active this year Governor John Long met with his fellow students every Wednesday at lunch in sponsor Mr. Crystal's room to plan and discuss the year's activities.

Secretary, Pam Elmstrom, Governor, John Long, Lieutenant Governor, Debbie Smith.

Freshman State Officers

Bewildered Freshmen worked and argued during lunch each Wednesday in sponsor, Mr. Dougherty's room to "learn the ropes" about student government and class activities.

Under the leadership of Governor Ken Dalgleish, active Freshmen worked at the Concession boothes during football and basketball games.

Bewildered no longer, these lively leaders point the way for better and bigger class activities.

Secretary, Debbie Schraum, Governor Ken Dalgleish, Lieutenant Governor, Theresa Ireton.

HOME

Imagine yourself at Buckingham Palace having a Ball! This was the theme of the 1968 Coronation Dance, November 5. A drawbridge, ladies in waiting, and a huge gold crown decorated the boy's gym as the band of "Music Unlimited" played tunes for dreamy dancing. At 10:30 Mr. Peterson announced--"I now present to you, the Royal Court for 1968. The Freshman Prince and Princess, Steve Curtiss, and Theresa Ireton; Sophomore Prince and Princess, Jeff Norris and Diane Drodz; Junior Prince and Princess, David Johnson and Timi Bourell; Senior Prince and Princess, Wayne Murray and Vicki Pasker! And the 1968 Homecoming Royalty---King Herb Bedolf and Queen Maureen McCready!" Then Cheryl Page, 1967 Queen, officially crowned them King and Queen of Buckingham Palace and Homecoming, 1968! It was quite an evening.

Senior Class Play:

"You were asked to come, too?" Who is our host and what do the ten of us have in common?"

One murder. Who done it? Two, three, four. The Judge? Five, six, seven, eight. No, he's dead.

"Ten Little Indians", by Agatha Christie is a multi-murder mystery made even more macabre by the actors of the class of '69.

A person is killed and one of the little toy Indians falls off the mantle. Two are left. One is the murderer, or maybe . . .

Graduation 1968

A windy afternoon in June was the setting for the graduation of the class of '68. Parents looked down from their grandstand seats to the empty chairs below on the football field. The time had arrived. The ESHS orchestra urged the seniors on to the field with a solemn procession. Juniors held the flowered archways as the graduating students slowly marched under them. Jim Puffer and Marilyn Walkey reflected the feelings of the class in their addresses to the parents. The students received their diplomas. They were now alumni of ESHS.

Rhapsody In Blue

The Prom Sweet Heart of '1968' was Kathy Wiley.

"Rhapsody in Blue" at the Bel Air Bay Club in Pacific Palisades was the 1968 Prom! Blue and white flowers, live doves in white cages, tall white columns and Grecian urns complimented the couples dancing to the music of the "Blue Notes." The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Prom Sweetheart, Kathy Wiley, and the announcement of the Prom Princesses, Annette Drummond and Ronalie Wood.

School Day

Student life begins early at ESHS. Students studying in a group or a few students studying individually ... Boys taking role in gym or an individual showing fatigue after a run ... A girl cheering at a rally or hungry students standing in line for lunch ... Boys trying to get into a room unnoticed ... Teachers swapping stories of classroom follies ... The band practicing "Up, Up, and Away" ... The drill team and band at the long-practiced evening performance ... The day has ended and will be ready for the beginning of another day.

Activities

ESHS' Top

Greg Cole

Greg hopes to attend USC or UCLA after leaving ESHS. He is planning to enter medical school after college.

He enjoys tennis, music and is active in the extra-curricular Democratic Club in El Segundo.

Greg is the president of the Junior Classical league and is secretary of Key Club.

Carole Deets

UCLA is the future alma mater of Carole. She intends to do graduate work in archaeology.

Her interests include instrumental and vocal music and drama.

Carole is an active member of AFS, CSF, Epsilon Sigma, Spanish Club and Madrigals.

Nadine Dickens

Majoring in Spanish and minoring in music, Nadine will attend Brigham Young University in Utah. She plans to teach Spanish.

Her interests being music, she plays piano, cello, and guitar.

Nadine is a member of Epsilon Sigma, Spanish Club and CSF. She is also a flag-twirler.

Becky Hoggan

When asked about post high school plans, Becky promptly answers BYU. She will major in English.

Becky plays guitar and piano and spends her spare time collecting Mad Magazines.

Becky is one of ESHS' flagtwirlers, and is in Epsilon Sigma and on the 1969 Golden Eagle Staff.

Linda Lehman

LaVerne College is where Linda will study elementary education. She plans to teach first grade.

Linda enjoys all sports, but sailing and skin diving are favorites.

She is in Biology Club, and AFS; Girls' League Historian and Senior Class Treasurer.

Ten Scholars

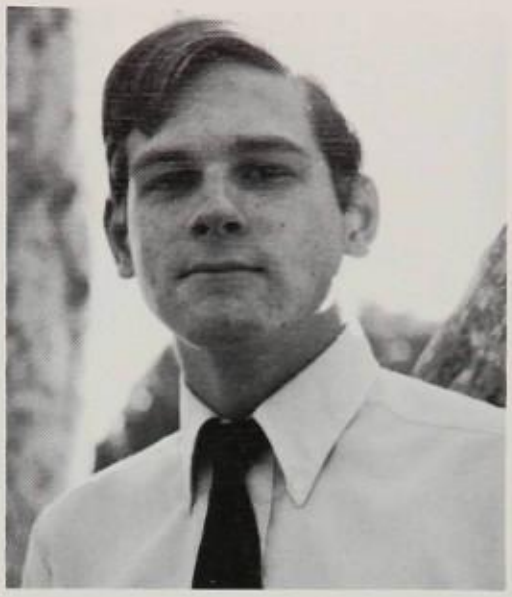
Greg' hopes to spend his college years at Stanford.

Music, astronomy, stamp collecting, sailing, track, and tennis is of interest to ESHS' newcomer.

Jumping into activity, he has been a clarinet soloist and in the Senior Class Play.

Greg is in Key Club, and Varsity Band.

Greg Roach

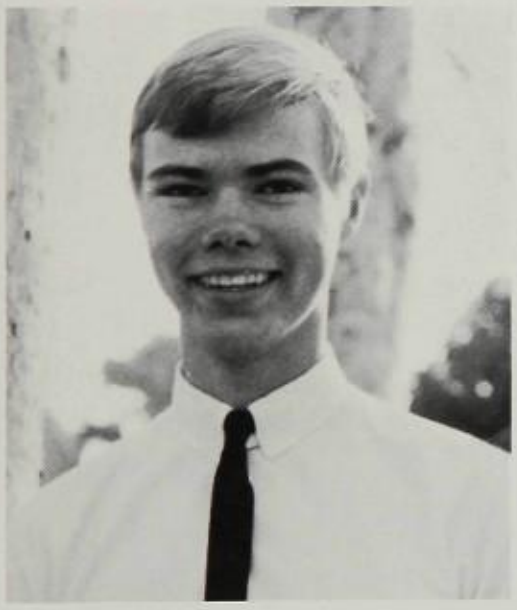


Paul Sinclair

Paul is planning to study at San Diego State following high school. His major will be engineering.

Paul enjoys science, drafting and is especially interested in biology.

He is a member of Key Club, AFS, CSF, and Biology Club, of the two later, Paul is President.



Charles Stiles

Stanford or Pepperdine College are among Charles' plans. He is interested in architecture as a possible future.

Tennis, skiing, and investigating aspects of the brain take up Charles' spare time. He works at the School for Mentally Handicapped Children and is active in the Junior Red Cross.

Val Truesdell

Val Plans to make USC or Occidental College the college of her choice. She doesn't know which major she'll pursue.

Her hobbies include sewing, seashell collecting, and working with paper mache.

Val is active in AFS, GAA, CSF, Epsilon Sigma, French Club, and is editor of the annual.

Margret Walkey

Margret would like to attend Penn State or UC Berkley.

She has not one but seven professions in mind. They are medicine, psychology, sociology, art, journalism, poetry, and computer programming.

Margret's hobbies include painting, writing, traveling, and conversation.

Tom Karutz, El Segundo's student to Japan last summer, greets Anne Young (Australia) and Mehmet Dogan (Turkey).

Flying all the way from Brisbane, Australia, Anne arrived in El Segundo.

She is active in the Navagation Club, Epsilon Sigma, French Club, AFS, and the Bay Eagle.

Upon returning to Australia, Anne plans to go to the University of Queensland.

She enjoys reading, sports, and traveling, and finds little difference in high schools.

Mehmet came to El Segundo from Ankara, Turkey. He is a member of Key Club, the tennis team, and AFS.

Mehmet plans to attend the Middle East Tech University where he will study chemical engineering.

He plays the accordian and is an avid chess and soccer player.

School in Turkey has thirteen classes. The students stay in one room, while the teacher moves from class to class.

All League Tight End, Dick Stumpp, slides the Eagles to Victory.

With the close of summer's sun & freedom, the El Segundo Eagles were faced with heartfelt desires for a season of victory. The veteran's had memories of a tragic past and a haunting present but their hopes were high; the Eagles could bring victory and honor back to Gundo.

With their 12th loss and San Marino rated 4th in C.I.F., they put up a tremendous fight to tie the game 13-13. Once again, the fans as well as the Eagles displayed confidence. Along came Aviation and its ever constant battle with victory as its ultimate end. With 67's record of defeat the Eagles disproved the implanted belief. They struggled, fought, and termination was Happiness and Victory. Assurance is granted that the games should have continued, for the feeling of preparation and oncoming fight impelled the Eagles to pride and once again to lift their heads high.

Two years ago under the leadership of Coach Jones, the Junior Varsity Baseball Team won the Pioneer League flag. That team consisted of mostly freshmen and juniors. This year is no exception. The infield consisted of juniors Greg McMullin and Wayne Walker, and freshmen Steve Curtiss, Steve Domann, and Mike Jellison. The outfield is made up mostly of freshmen: Jeff Tidwell and Stewart Swiggum. Anyway you line them up, you can be sure that the Eagles will always be on top.

During the year, G.A.A. members prepare themselves for the various sports days, plan money-making projects in order to award a scholarship to an outstanding senior, and support the boys in various sports fields.

G.A.A. class is open to any girl fulfilling the requirements set by the constitution and having an interest in sports. The club, meets after school and welcomes all girls at ESHS.

1st. Semester officers: ROW 1: D. Fisk, L. Smith, D. Robison, C. Pendleton. ROW 2: B. Murphy, L. White, E. Young, C. Collette, L. Freeman.

Editor's Thanks

To Becky for getting a picture of the dedicatee without letting him know.
To Gary for getting pictures of camera-shy faculty.
To Tish for placing seniors first and best.
To Jan who probably knows every junior, sophomore, and freshman.
To Beth for spending extra hours on clubs and government.
To Debbie C. and May for getting us through our first crisis.
To Debbie D. for adding the feminine touch to sports.
To Maureen and Jani for compiling the time-consuming index and other odd jobs.
To Sue for designing our cover and her artwork.
To Tim for being our darkroom specialist.
To Tom for taking unusual, but printable pictures.
To Wendy for keeping track of where the money went.
To Mike for writing some of our more interesting copy.
To Mrs. Peterson for spending additional time and effort to keep us going.
To Mr. Kingston and Mrs. Evans for putting up with our constant queries.
To Robert's Studio for taking senior portraits and other formal pictures.
To Mr. Brisben of American Yearbook for helping us produce a different annual.

Together we have attempted to make changes to produce an annual which better reflects the feelings of the students. We have also tried to continue and improve traditions which had been neglected such as the Coronation Ball and the use of school colors for the annual cover.
